

Policy: Institutionally Recognized Name
Responsible for Policy: Academic & Student Affairs

Policy Number:
Most recent approval date: January 2021

Policy Statement

The College's Institutionally Recognized Name policy* allows students and employees to officially notify the college of their Institutionally Recognized name(s) and pronoun, and have this request reflected in on-campus communication systems (e.g., Colleague, Email, Blackboard, Maxient, Campus CE, Housing, Slate, Starfish, Web Advisor, TutorTrac, etc.) as long as the Institutionally Recognized name is not used for purposes of misidentification, fraud or misrepresentation, and that the Institutionally Recognized name meets community standards (i.e. not profane, obscene, or derived from hate-speech, is not considered a violation of a trademark, and conforms to technical requirements). Including, but not limited to, support of the LGBTQ+ community, international students, nicknames and/or individual partiality, Institutionally Recognized names are limited to alphabetical characters, a hyphen (-) and a space.

The institution must apply the individual's legal first name for designated official records and reports including but not limited to: employment and payroll records, billing records, financial aid documents, official transcripts, medical records, employee benefits records, enrollment reporting, expense reimbursements, campus safety incidents, federal and state tax submissions and documents, travel and purchasing authorizations, and federal immigration documents.

The college reserves the right to revoke or deny the use of any Institutionally Recognized name request at any time with notification to the individual.

* The aforementioned policy will be updated as institutional technology infrastructure advances.

Reason for Policy

This policy is consistent with Diversity, Equity, Inclusive higher education practices supporting individuals against discrimination based on gender identity and expression, and is best practice for supporting transgender, gender non-conforming, and all members of the college community.

Applicability of the Policy
